Early Notification Program

A voluntary notification system designed to aid in the interaction between citizens with special needs and responding Law Enforcement Officers.

Program Overview

The members of the McLean County Law Enforcement community are committed to developing strategies and procedures to enhance their interaction with special needs residents. The procedures outlined in this program are specifically designed to provide responding law enforcement officers with information which may assist them in their investigations and responses to your calls for service.

How Do Responding Officers Get My Information?

By registering, you allow the specific information you provide to be entered and maintained in a County-wide database system. If you should call for police services, the information you provided will appear and be passed on to the responding officers through the dispatch center.
