Update: Olamide Adeyooye

We are not prepared to release any information regarding specific persons or evidence in this case as it may harm the continuing investigation or damage future criminal proceedings.

We are pleased to announce our investigation is moving forward and we are satisfied with its progress. Every day our focus narrows to the person or persons responsible. We have completed many tasks but there is still more work to be done. We are diligently working to bring this investigation to a successful completion.

Our detectives have returned from Mississippi and we are compiling and analyzing information they gathered. We are in communication with Mississippi state and local law enforcement monitoring their assistance in this investigation. The Newton County Medical Examiner has yet to provide a cause of death. Their determination is still under investigation.

Adeyooye's vehicle has not yet been located. We urge anyone with information on its location to contact the Normal Police Department.
