Update: Olamide Adeyooye

We are not prepared to release any information regarding specific persons or evidence in this case as it may harm the continuing investigation or damage future criminal proceedings.

At approximately 5:00pm central time, Sunday, October 30th, we received information from the Atlanta Police Department that Olamide Adeyooye's 1996 Toyota Corolla was located in southwest Atlanta, Georgia. The vehicle was found intact and is currently being processed for evidence by the FBI Atlanta Office.

Normal Police Department Detectives arrived in Atlanta early this morning to work with the FBI and Atlanta Police Department. They will be coordinating efforts to gather evidence and canvas the area where the vehicle was located.

Persons with information should contact Detective Sergeant Scott Johnson at 309-454-9535
